PLEDGE

India is my country. All Indians are my brothers and sisters.

I love my country, and I am proud of its rich and varied heritage. I shall always strive to be worthy of it.

I shall give my parents, teachers and all elders respect, and treat everyone with courtesy.

To my country and my people,
I pledge my devotion. In their well-being and prosperity alone lies my happiness.

Preface

Dear Children,

Now you are in Standard One. A most hearty welcome! We are happy to place this textbook English Balbharati for Standard One in your hands.

Standard One is the beginning and foundation of education. To establish this foundation you should be able to speak, read and write in English properly. Until now you have heard English sometimes at home and outside the home. Now you have to learn, read and write it. This textbook is full of songs, rhymes, poems, stories and activities. It will make your learning interesting and easy.

There are various types of rhymes and poems. You will be very happy to sing them and dance to them all together. You will enjoy to listen and tell stories also. Everyone will be very happy to listen to your experiences while chatting about pictures in your textbook.

There are many colourful pictures for reading, letters and words that you would love to learn. At the beginning, you will surely enjoy the fun of learning words and letters from pictures. Learn to read, to look and to say, to write in the 'Word' file; everything is fun. There are also some language games. Learning the language in a playful manner will help you to read the words, sentences and lessons. From all of these you will have the pleasure of learning on your own. Q. R. Codes have been given to songs, stories, letter groups, picture reading and other activities too. You will definitely like everything.

At the end of the Standard One, I hope you will be able to speak, read and write confidently. Friends, grow up while studying with joy. Wish you all the best for your studies!

For Teachers / Parents

Learning should be enjoyable, interesting, motivating and constructive for the children. To develop child's language skills like listening, speaking, reading, writing and study skills all the activities and games have been planned in this book.

Each unit has following sections.

- Let's listen : Use of rhymes, poems, simple instructions, polite requests, words, sentences and stories.
- Let's speak : Use of some of the basic functions of language such as greetings, introduction, expressing feelings, conversations and answering open - ended questions.
- Let's build words : Use of flash cards, various games and activities for increasing and enriching vocabulary.
- Let's communicate : Use of conversations and games.
- Let's read : Use of alphabet, sight words, rhymes and stories.
- Let's write : Use of different writing forms.
- Let's assess : Through various activities and games recognise alphabet and sounds.
- differentiate between small and capital letter
- arrange alphabetically
- reciting poems, follow instructions
- giving verbal and non - verbal responses
- understand sequence in the stories
- speak about self/ situations/pictures
- enact or dramatize an event, conversation or story
- 'Word' file : The 'Word' file activity will develop interest in learning process and develop vocabulary. Parents/teachers should allow the child to find, cut, draw pictures or write / copy words etc.

The present textbook is a child - friendly, child - centred, activity - oriented and based on constructivism. It will surely develop confidence and interest in the child for English. The techniques and strategies recommended / used in this book will help in the all round development of the children.

The book has been integrated into various types of themes which promote collaborative learning.

Instructions for Teachers / Parents

- (1) Listen, sing and act : The teacher may add other happy actions to the song; for the practice.
- (2) Look and Say : Use flash cards and make the children read the words at sight.
- (3) Game : 'Arya says' Page 3. Give ample practice of action time to the children. Ask any one child to play the role of Arya and give instructions. Children can use their own names in the place of 'Arya'. Let each and every child get the chance in the game.
- (4) For Page 5, 6 : Prepare and use several sets of small and capital letter cards to give practice of all the activities given.
- (5) Word game Page 6 : Make each child say a word that does not start with the first letter of his/her first name. If he/she makes mistake he/she will be out of the game. Give enough time to each and every child to tell the word. This will provide ample scope for collection of maximum vocabulary.
- (6) Soham's Ball Page. 10 : Give more emphasis on the thought provoking questions given in the story.
- (7) Magic words Page 11 : Provide more examples/ situations for motivating children to use magic words in their day-to-day life.
- (8) Guessing Game Page 16 : Tell at least three sentences about classroom things and ask the children to guess them.
For example : It is black. It is on the wall. It is used for writing. What is it? Give more examples.
- (9) Picture describing Page. 14, 18, 61, 63, 75. Motivate the children to answer different types of questions, to observe and talk about the given pictures.
- (10) Game : Just whisper Page 19 : Whisper a word/ words/sentence to any child and ask him/her to whisper the message to his/her friend sitting beside him/her. Continue the game upto the last participant in the game. Then ask him/her to tell the message aloud.

The teacher must make sure that each child participates in all the activities.

When Toto laid an egg,

she used to make a 'special' sound "Kok-kok-kok".

Then Rahish came out and fed Toto and took the egg for him.

One night Rahish was sleeping in the bed.

He heard the special sound of Toto "Kok-kok-kok". Rahish came out from the house.

Toto ran to Rahish and pecked his leg.

Rahish looked around to see what happened.

He smelt something burning.

“Oh! My God! The coop is on fire”, he shouted. The coop was in a mess.

Rahish ran to the tap of water and took the pipe.

Then he showered the water and put out the fire.

Then, Rahish bent and picked up Toto.

“You smart hen, my dear friend!

You have saved my farm”, said Rahish.

Toto happily replied to Rahish, “Kok.....
Kok.....Kok....”

5. Surprise Birthday Party

1. Look at the pictures, listen and read.

There was a monkey named Manku.
Manku lived in a cave.

A lake was near the cave.
Ducky, the drake and his sister
Lucky lived in the lake.
Jin and Jenny, the cranes lived near the lake.
All of them were Manku's friends.
They loved to play together.

One day Manku became very happy.
“ Oh ! Tomorrow is Sunday and Sunday is my birthday.
Ducky, Lucky, Jin and Jenny will come to say,
Happy Birthday”, thought Manku.
Soon it was Sunday.
Manku waited for a long time for hours and hours.
But no one came. So he felt very sad.

Manku went to the lake. But no one was there.
So sadly Manku came back to his cave.
Manku was surprised to see the cake
on the table.
“Wow! A cake!” said Manku.

Ducky, Lucky, Jin and Jenny came out and shouted, “ Happy Birthday to you... Happy Birthday dear, Manku.”
“ We were waiting to give you a surprise”, all said.
“ I baked cake for you”, said Jin.
“ I bought you some grapes,” said Jenny.
“ And we have made this table for you”, said Ducky and Lucky.

“It’s really a surprise for me. Thanks, my dear friends. You all are really great ! I love you all,” said Manku.
Then they all danced together.

1. Look, listen and read aloud.

Shyam started in his horse cart to go to the fair.

On the way, Madhu and Meera said,

“Can we come?”

“Oh, yes!” said Shyam.

The dog saw them.

He asked, “Can I come?”

“Oh, yes!” said Shyam.

They were going through the fields.

The peacock saw them and asked,

“Can I come to the fair?”

“Oh, yes!” said Shyam.

When they were crossing the river,

The frog asked, “Can I come to the fair?”

“Oh, yes!” said all of them.

Shyam said, “Come and sit near me.”

They saw the fair from a distance.

The peacock was so happy, it spread its feathers and started dancing. But one feather touched the dog's ear. He sprang up and barked loudly.

Madhu was frightened. Meera fell on the frog. The frog fell on the horse.

The horse was so frightened that he ran helter-skelter.

Shyam fell off. Then Madhu and Meera also fell off. One by one all of them fell off.

The horse kept running and stopped when it reached near the fair.

Shyam, Madhu, Meera, the dog, the peacock and the frog were all panting when they reached.

Till then the horse became quiet and relaxed. In the evening they returned happily in the horse cart.

3. Buying Things

1. Listen and read.

Soham and Reva are going to a shop with their parents.

What a big shop!

Mother wanted to buy some things. Father wanted to buy some things.

“How about you, children? Do you want to buy something on your own? Here’s some money. You can use it to buy anything you like.”

“Shall we buy chocolates?”

“Shall we buy crayons?”

“Shall we buy a toy?”

“Please help us, mother.

What should we buy?”

“Well, you can buy something that will finish up quickly, or, you can buy something that will last long. You can buy something made by others, or, you can buy things and make something yourself.”

“That’s a good idea. Let’s buy things and make new things with them.”

Soham and Reva picked up some things. They went to the counter.

“We want to buy this paper, glue and colours. How much is it?”

“Ninety-five rupees in all.”

“Here’s the money. A hundred rupees.”

“Thank you. I must give you five rupees back. Here it is.”

“That’s right. Thank you.”

Talk about it and write one or two lines about it.

5. Draw the shapes in your 'Word' file and write the name of each shape below it.

Note that for 'leaf' and 'flower', you can use the shapes of different leaves and flowers.

For which other words given here can you use a variety of shapes?

1. Read out the instructions and demonstrate how to make a mobile. With adequate prior preparation, let the children prepare the mobiles in the classroom itself. It may also be done as a group-activity.

4. Encourage the children to express their own ideas when they speak and write about the shapes. Everyone should get an opportunity to speak.

3.The Egg

1. Look, listen and read.

Baby Parrot lived in a nest with Mummy and a big white egg. “I’m going to find some food,” said Mummy one day.

“You must look after the egg until I return.” Baby Parrot watched the egg for a very long time. She moved it around to make sure it was comfortable. She wrapped her wings around it to make sure it was warm. “I’m very good at looking after eggs,” she thought.

Just then, she heard the monkeys playing in the trees. Baby Parrot tried to call like a monkey, too. She peered over the edge of the nest and laughed at their games. Suddenly Baby Parrot remembered the egg. She looked around and gulped. It was broken. Mummy would be angry! But when Mummy returned, she wasn’t angry at all.

“Don’t worry,” Mummy said, as a little parrot popped out of the broken eggshell. “The egg has hatched while I was away. Now you’ve got a new baby sister to play with!”

1. Listen, read and enact.

Once upon a time, certain workmen were busy building a temple.
When it was noon.

Ramrao, let's go to the town for lunch.

Let's hope no one touches that wedge while we are away.

Ok, Shamrao I'll just put a wedge here and come.

Suddenly, a monkey arrived.

What is this piece of wood doing here?

I wonder what will happen if I pull it out.

UGH!
It's tough.

Out it came.

Help!

The gap closed in trapping the monkey's tail.

The poor monkey cried in pain. So we should not meddle with things that are not concerned to us.
